THIS WEEK'S HOT CONTENT

- AI For Enterprises, Part 1: Where Are We in Tackling the Popular Adage GIGO? by ResurfX: This is the first of a two-part post on adopting AI at scale. Centered on the theme of GIGO, we will also explore early successes of (true and pseudo) AI-based solutions, implications for subsequent progress, preparing businesses for reaping value from these solutions and setting appropriate strategies for digital and AI transformation. We take this opportunity to highlight advantages of the approach the outcomes intelligence company, ReSurfX, is taking with excellent success. Learn more
